

CTS receives industry's top award

CTS Technology Solutions, a leading unified communications provider with corporate headquarters in Sparta, and offices in Carterville, Cape Girardeau and St. Louis, recently received the Presidents Award for Exceptional Economic Achievement from Technology Assurance Group. Dave Heuman is CEO/president of CTS.

TAG, an international organization of independently owned unified communications companies in the United States and Canada, selected CTS as the winner of this award for the fifth year. CTS received the recognition during an awards ceremony attended by TAG's member companies and leading technology manufacturers.

