

BUSINESS ANNOUNCEMENTS

Douglas S. Jones, director of the Florida Museum of Natural History, was recently elected president of the Association of Science Museum Directors.

Jones, who was named interim director of the Florida Museum in 1996 and director the following year, has been a member of the museum directors association since 1998 and served on its board for six years.

Jones also serves on the board of directors of the American Alliance of Museums, The Toomey Foundation for the Natural Sciences Inc. and the Florida Association of Museums.

Coldwell Banker Commercial M.M. Parrish Realtors recently announced that Beau Beery and Todd Rainsberger earned a spot in the company's gold level circle of distinction based on their transaction revenue for 2013.

Combined, Beery and Rainsberger were the top-producing agents in the state for the company.

Southern Legal Counsel was recently awarded the Florida Bar Foundation's Stephen M. Goldstein Award for Excellence for its work on Moreland v. Palmer, in which the firm's attorneys worked with private disability attorney Nancy Wright to fight budget cuts by Florida's Agency for Persons with Disabilities.

The award recognizes a significant project undertaken by a Florida Bar Foundation Legal Assistance for the Poor grantee, which are awarded to not-for-profit legal aid organizations.

ComSys, a local communications and technology solutions provider, recently announced that the company has been invited to attend Technology Assurance Group's annual convention.

Technology Assurance Group is an international organization of leading unified communications providers.
