3 TAG MEMBERS WIN CHANNEL PARTNERS CLOUDYS AWARD

COLUMBIA, SC – September 15, 2015 - Channel Partners, a resource for indirect sales channels offering IT and telecom solutions, announced the winners of the 2015 Cloudys Cloud Channel Innovation Awards. The 25 winners were honored on September 15, 2015 at Cloud Partners, a Channel Partners event, in Boston, during ceremonies to be held in conjunction with a cocktail reception for first-time Cloud Partners attendees. The winners will also be featured in a digital issue that will be available for download from The Cloudys Immersion Center later this month.

"Winners of this year's Cloudys awards run the gamut from IP telephony to shifting a customer's entire IT infrastructure into the cloud," said Lorna Garey, editor-in-chief of Channel Partners. "We have cloud brokers, desktop- and backup-as-a-service providers, and more. This program recognizes the array of business-focused cloud offerings that partners are delivering, and we were pleased to invite our innovators to share success stories with first-time Cloud Partners attendees."

The Cloudys Awards were open to VARs, MSPs, agents, integrators and consultants. Entrants completed an application that asked them to demonstrate how they used innovative cloud solutions to help customers grow their businesses. Channel Partners editors then evaluated and scored all applications to determine the 25 candidates that best exemplify the spirit of innovation.

The winning TAG Members are CTS, Prime Telecommunications Inc., and Voice Smart Networks.
