

WESTFIELD

Chamber meeting

The Greater Westfield Chamber of Commerce will honor its businesses and business people of the year during its annual meeting scheduled for Nov. 17 at Tekoa Country Club.

Jen-Coat will receive the 2010 business of the year award for companies employing 50 or more employees. Stevens 470 Design will receive the award for businesses with 50 or less employees.

Businessman of the year will be Sean Hogan of Hogan Communications and Kathleen Damon, director of the Carson Center is the 2010 businesswoman of the year.

Albert Ferst will be recognized with the Donald Blair Outstanding Citizen Award recipient.

