

Convergis Technologies launches buy-back program

CUMMING, Ga. — Convergis Technologies, an industry business communications provider, recently announced that the company is assisting the region's small to mid-sized companies facing the challenges of the recession with a technology buy-back program.

Convergis Technologies is located at 6065 Parkway North Drive, Suite 500 in Cumming.

This program enables Convergis Technologies to offer cash back to a customer for their existing communications system.

For more information, visit www.convergistechnologies.com.

