

Colorado Business

ServiceMagic.com of Golden announced the acquisition of Market Hardware Inc., a company that provides online marketing solutions for small and medium-sized businesses. Terms of the transaction were not disclosed.

Level 3 Communications Inc. announced that the company is providing live standard and high-definition television broadcast video services to multiple broadcasters during the Super Bowl on Sunday in Tampa, Fla.

Rum Cakes By Kelli has been launched by Kelli Kindel, who also owns Kelli Kindel Events Inc. Both firms are based in Denver.

Appearances Hair Color & Design Studio of Westminster recently was named one of the 200 fastest-growing salons in North America by Salon Today magazine.

UDR Inc. declared a special dividend of $1.29 per share of common stock, payable Jan. 29 to stockholders of record Dec. 9.

SC Ministry Foundation has approved a two-year grant to St. Anthony Health Foundation designated for the certified nurse-midwife practice at St. Anthony Central Hospital.

Miracle Method, a surface-restoration network with more than 120 U.S. locations, is moving its national headquarters and local franchise offices to 5020 Mark Dabbling Blvd. in Colorado Springs.

Arapahoe/Douglas Mental Health Network moved its administrative headquarters to 155 Inverness Drive West in the Inverness Business Park.

USA Mobility Inc. has expanded its Denver office and showroom to 7808 Cherry Creek South Drive and has opened an office in Colorado Springs at 3475 Pine Tree Square.

TDA Advertising & Design of Boulder was named the first advertising agency of record by Tuition-Bids.com.

Teleco of the Rockies, an Arapahoe County-based provider of business communications, announced that the company's Customer Advocates will introduce managed IT services to the region's small to mid-sized businesses.

Allstate Insurance Co. has opened a new office at 1940 Blake St.

Suite 105. The office is owned and operated by James Barthelemy.

Printing imperfections present during scanning

